

Special Notices.

Democratic Wm. General Committee.—A regular MEETING of this Committee will be held on TUESDAY

EVENING, May 1, at 8 o'clock, in the Tribune House.

WILLIAM H. CHAPMAN,

Chairman of MURKIN'S, Vice Chairman,

GEO. BRIGGS,

C. W. SCHAFER, Secretary.

GEORGE TAPPAN,

New-York Historical Society.—The Regular Monthly Meeting of this Society will be held on TUESDAY

EVENING, May 1, at 8 o'clock, in the Tribune House.

WILLIAM H. CHAPMAN,

Chairman of MURKIN'S, Vice Chairman,

GEO. BRIGGS,

E. W. SCHAFER, Secretary.

GEORGE WASHINGTON,

General Notice.—The Hon. GEORGE WASH-INGTON, President of the U. S., has been notified that his Message will be held NEXT WEDNESDAY EVEN-ING, at 8 o'clock, in their new room No. 41 Broadway, whereas, requested to attend. By Order,

J. W. HALL, W. M.

Dentist Visit.—The friends of the Rev. CHARLES J.

JONES, Pastor of the First Congregational Church of Worcester, in the care of the Post Society, will pay him a DENTAL VISIT, at his residence, No. 81 Madison st., on WEDNESDAY, May 4, from 9 A.M. to 2 P.M. Your friends are respectfully invited to call.

The Hon. GEORGE WASHINGTON, has recently removed to the city of St. Louis, Mo., and it is hoped that those who sympathize with the self-denying work in which he is engaged, will make liberal donations, remembering how our friends said it is more blessed to give than receive. N. B.—Anything pertaining to his homecoming will be acceptable.

Rev. T. L. CUTLER, A. N. SHADBOLT,

SAMUEL HOLMES, M. T. COOPER,

DANIEL WOODWARD, RICHARD PATRICK,

L. P. HUTCHARD.

New private Hospital.—Dr. H. SWIFT and I. T.

HUXTER, respectively announce to the public that they have opened a HOSPITAL for the treatment of all diseases.

The houses are of wood, well constructed, and are fitted up with the greatest comfort and safety. They are lit throughout with gas, and are provided with warm, cold and shower baths. The Free Department, including the necessary

rooms for convalescents, and an Apothecary's Department complete in all its details, is attached. To respectable

persons, of either sex, residing in boarding-houses or hotels, and who cannot, without heavy expense, provide for the removal of their invalids, the best rates, and, fact, to all who, at a moderate expense, desire the best attention, and the comforts of a respectable home while sick, this institution provides unusual advantages. Separate rooms can be had by arrangement with Dr. Huxter, and the same rates as those applicable at the Office, in the basement of No. 275.

New private Hospital.—Dr. H. SWIFT and I. T.

HUXTER, respectively announce to the public that they have

opened a HOSPITAL for the treatment of all diseases.

The houses are of wood, well constructed, and are fitted

up with the greatest comfort and safety. They are lit

throughout with gas, and are provided with warm, cold and

shower baths. The Free Department, including the necessary

rooms for convalescents, and an Apothecary's Department

complete in all its details, is attached. To respectable

persons, of either sex, residing in boarding-houses or hotels,

and who cannot, without heavy expense, provide for

the removal of their invalids, the best rates, and, fact, to all

who, at a moderate expense, desire the best attention,

and the comforts of a respectable home while sick, this institution

provides unusual advantages. Separate rooms can be had

by arrangement with Dr. Huxter, and the same rates as

those applicable at the Office, in the basement of No. 275.

New private Hospital.—Dr. H. SWIFT and I. T.

HUXTER, respectively announce to the public that they have

opened a HOSPITAL for the treatment of all diseases.

The houses are of wood, well constructed, and are fitted

up with the greatest comfort and safety. They are lit

throughout with gas, and are provided with warm, cold and

shower baths. The Free Department, including the necessary

rooms for convalescents, and an Apothecary's Department

complete in all its details, is attached. To respectable

persons, of either sex, residing in boarding-houses or hotels,

and who cannot, without heavy expense, provide for

the removal of their invalids, the best rates, and, fact, to all

who, at a moderate expense, desire the best attention,

and the comforts of a respectable home while sick, this institution

provides unusual advantages. Separate rooms can be had

by arrangement with Dr. Huxter, and the same rates as

those applicable at the Office, in the basement of No. 275.

New private Hospital.—Dr. H. SWIFT and I. T.

HUXTER, respectively announce to the public that they have

opened a HOSPITAL for the treatment of all diseases.

The houses are of wood, well constructed, and are fitted

up with the greatest comfort and safety. They are lit

throughout with gas, and are provided with warm, cold and

shower baths. The Free Department, including the necessary

rooms for convalescents, and an Apothecary's Department

complete in all its details, is attached. To respectable

persons, of either sex, residing in boarding-houses or hotels,

and who cannot, without heavy expense, provide for

the removal of their invalids, the best rates, and, fact, to all

who, at a moderate expense, desire the best attention,

and the comforts of a respectable home while sick, this institution

provides unusual advantages. Separate rooms can be had

by arrangement with Dr. Huxter, and the same rates as

those applicable at the Office, in the basement of No. 275.

New private Hospital.—Dr. H. SWIFT and I. T.

HUXTER, respectively announce to the public that they have

opened a HOSPITAL for the treatment of all diseases.

The houses are of wood, well constructed, and are fitted

up with the greatest comfort and safety. They are lit

throughout with gas, and are provided with warm, cold and

shower baths. The Free Department, including the necessary

rooms for convalescents, and an Apothecary's Department

complete in all its details, is attached. To respectable

persons, of either sex, residing in boarding-houses or hotels,

and who cannot, without heavy expense, provide for

the removal of their invalids, the best rates, and, fact, to all

who, at a moderate expense, desire the best attention,

and the comforts of a respectable home while sick, this institution

provides unusual advantages. Separate rooms can be had

by arrangement with Dr. Huxter, and the same rates as

those applicable at the Office, in the basement of No. 275.

New private Hospital.—Dr. H. SWIFT and I. T.

HUXTER, respectively announce to the public that they have

opened a HOSPITAL for the treatment of all diseases.

The houses are of wood, well constructed, and are fitted

up with the greatest comfort and safety. They are lit

throughout with gas, and are provided with warm, cold and

shower baths. The Free Department, including the necessary

rooms for convalescents, and an Apothecary's Department

complete in all its details, is attached. To respectable

persons, of either sex, residing in boarding-houses or hotels,

and who cannot, without heavy expense, provide for

the removal of their invalids, the best rates, and, fact, to all

who, at a moderate expense, desire the best attention,

and the comforts of a respectable home while sick, this institution

provides unusual advantages. Separate rooms can be had

by arrangement with Dr. Huxter, and the same rates as

those applicable at the Office, in the basement of No. 275.

New private Hospital.—Dr. H. SWIFT and I. T.

HUXTER, respectively announce to the public that they have

opened a HOSPITAL for the treatment of all diseases.

The houses are of wood, well constructed, and are fitted

up with the greatest comfort and safety. They are lit

throughout with gas, and are provided with warm, cold and

shower baths. The Free Department, including the necessary

rooms for convalescents, and an Apothecary's Department

complete in all its details, is attached. To respectable

persons, of either sex, residing in boarding-houses or hotels,

and who cannot, without heavy expense, provide for

the removal of their invalids, the best rates, and, fact, to all

who, at a moderate expense, desire the best attention,

and the comforts of a respectable home while sick, this institution

provides unusual advantages. Separate rooms can be had

by arrangement with Dr. Huxter, and the same rates as

those applicable at the Office, in the basement of No. 275.

New private Hospital.—Dr. H. SWIFT and I. T.

HUXTER, respectively announce to the public that they have

opened a HOSPITAL for the treatment of all diseases.

The houses are of wood, well constructed, and are fitted

up with the greatest comfort and safety. They are lit

throughout with gas, and are provided with warm, cold and

shower baths. The Free Department, including the necessary

rooms for convalescents, and an Apothecary's Department

complete in all its details, is attached. To respectable

persons, of either sex, residing in boarding-houses or hotels,

and who cannot, without heavy expense, provide for

the removal of their invalids, the best rates, and, fact, to all who, at a moderate expense, desire the best attention, and